

Presbytery of Middle Tennessee

Called Meeting of Presbytery January 10, 2015

There will be a called meeting of the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee on Saturday, January 10, 2015, Glen Leven Presbyterian Church, Nashville, at the request of the Coordinating Committee of the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee. Directions to the church are attached.

The meeting has been called to discuss, debate, and vote on the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Attached is the agenda for the meeting, a copy of the proposed amendments, the process proposed by the Coordinating Committee for dealing with the amendments, and a statement of who may vote. You may make as many copies of the amendment booklet as you need; you can also download the amendment booklet at <http://www.pcusa.org/resource/ga221-proposed-amendments-constitution/>.

Please let Linda Griffis know the name(s) of the ruling elder commissioner(s) by January 5, 2015 so that name tags can be prepared.

In the event of inclement weather requiring the rescheduling of the meeting, the backup date is Saturday, January 24, 2015, at Glen Leven. Notice of the meeting's postponement will be published on the presbytery's website, www.pbymidtn.org, as soon as a decision is made.

Please contact me if you have any questions about the meeting.
