Glean Your Garden Sunday with the Society of St. Andrew

Bring the extra veggies from your garden to church and the Society of St. Andrew will help you take them to feed the hungry.

Do you have gardeners in your congregation? Help the Society of St. Andrew feed our hungry neighbors this summer with Glean Your Garden Sundays! It's easy - invite backyard gardeners to bring their excess veggies to church. Society of St. Andrews will help you find the closest food pantry, shelter, or soup kitchen who can take those veggies. They have bulletin inserts, newsletter articles, and liturgical supplements available. For more information, contact Jeannie Hunter at SoSAtn@endhunger.org.

Gleaning America's Fields ~ Feeding America's Hungry – that is what the Society of St. Andrew does. They do it simply, effectively, and efficiently. Their hunger programs include:

- Gleaning Network – volunteers of all ages gleaning from farmers' fields
- Potato & Produce Project - truckloads of unmarketable potatoes and other produce, donated by the agricultural community, are delivered to agencies serving the poor
- Harvest of Hope – an ecumenical study, worship, and mission retreat program

2017 Offering of Letters

The 2017 Offering of Letters campaign urges Congress to invest in and protect vital policies and safety-net programs — including WIC, global nutrition, SNAP, and refundable tax credits. Bread for the World has made great progress reducing hunger and poverty in our country and around the world, but our work remains unfinished.

Take Action: Write to Congress asking that vital policies and safety-net programs be properly funded and protected to make the goal of ending hunger by 2030 happen.

Since 1990, young people have been leading the charge to collect dollars and food weeks leading up to the Big Game. Teaming up with local partners, these groups give 100% of donations to local charities, changing the nation's largest weekend of football into the largest weekend of caring.

This year, the Souper Bowl of Caring collected over $10 million in cash and food items in the fight against hunger. In the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee, we collected $11,358.97 and 2,826 cans and 100 pounds of food. Thank you to all the churches that participated.

September Is National Hunger Action Month

Your church can do something about hunger

Plan to have a special worship service at your church on one of the Sundays in September to bring awareness about hunger in America.
