

Part-Time Position Available

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Historic Franklin Presbyterian Church
435 Main St.
Franklin, TN, 37064

A church centrally located in downtown Franklin, TN, is offering a unique opportunity for an experienced candidate to fill the part-time position (20 hours per week) of Director of Christian Education.

POSITION DESCRIPTION: The Director of Christian Education (DCE) will organize and resource HFPC's Christian Education programs, with an emphasis on children and youth, to include training church members for the task of teaching and leading Christian Education in a shared capacity. In working with children and youth, the DCE will foster faith formation and support their families.

Responsibilities include mandatory Sunday morning, Sunday evening, and Wednesday evening obligations as well as participating in weekly staff meetings and monthly Christian Education Committee (CEC) meetings; train and coordinate tech team.. (A complete job description is available upon request.)

QUALIFICATIONS: The qualified candidate will have, at minimum, a high school diploma and sufficient training and experience necessary to assist in nurturing the life of the church. S/he shall have a passion for Christian Education and shall possess the characteristics and qualities necessary for working harmoniously, effectively, creatively, and confidentially with church members across all populations, the Pastor, and other church staff. Additionally, the qualified candidate must enjoy interacting with people and building relationships, be able to work with minimal direction, be dependable, adaptable, flexible, and detail-oriented.

SALARY: Commensurate with experience.

INTERESTED? Please email a resume and letter of interest to personnel.hfpc@gmail.com

Historic Franklin Presbyterian Church is an Equal Opportunity Employer.